

WD HPMC was developed for use in gypsum-based smoothing mortars and fillers. It is based on morphology-controlled production technology which results in adjusted dissolution characteristics. The pH of the formulation has no influence on the rate of hydration. In addition to its balanced thickening efficiency, the product imparts good workability and enhances water retention considerably. It is compatible with all conventional mineral binders.

